PREFACE.

THE late Act of Parliament for regulating Hackney-Coaches having rendered all former publications of this nature entirely useless, it was thought a copious view of the Fares, by actual measurement, from the different stands, to the principal places in and near London, agreeable to the recent regulations, would be highly acceptable to the public.

Experience shews how very frequent disputes arise between Hackney Coachmen and their employers, which is always attended with great inconvenience and loss of time to both parties. —It must have occurred to every one how few fares there are, which even those who are accustomed to use a hackney-coach, can fix with certainty; but when the distance is great, and depending on actual mensuration, it has generally been at the coachman's option to charge what he pleases. In that case the present Pocket Companion will be found of the greatest utility, particular care having been taken to mark every usual and accustomed fare within the distance of eight miles. And that nothing might be wanting to render this Vade Mecum complete, the respective distances are also set down with the most scrupulous exactitude in miles and furlongs.

It may be necessary to observe, that where a particular street or distance is not marked, the coachman's demand may be easily ascertained by referring to what the fare is to the stand nearest the place where you are set down. To say any thing further in behalf of the present work would be only detaining the reader, as the rapid sale which similar publications have met with fully evinces their utility; and, in order to render it still more acceptable to the public, at the end are the new regulations of the Watermens Fares, as settled by the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, and confirmed by his Majesty's Most Honourable Privy-Council, dated the 21st day of April, 1785.

ABSTRACTS

ACTS of PARLIAMENT RELATING TO HACKNEY COACHES AND CHAIRS,

Which passed the 9th and 10th of Queen Anne; made perpetual the 1st of George I. and amended the 7th and 24th of George III. and enjoin, that

THE Commissioners, not exceeding five, may be appointed by the King, who shall register and license all Hackney Coaches and Chairs within the Bills of Mortality. The number of coaches are not to exceed 1000; every Proprietor paying weekly 10s. by monthly payments; and the number of Hackney Chairs are not to exceed 400, reserving a rent of 10s. a year to be paid quarterly.

No person shall drive or let to hire any hackney coach or coachmen, within the weekly bills, &c. without a licence from the Commissioners, upon forfeiture of 5l. nor carry any hackney chair for hire without such licence, upon forfeiture of 40s. and no horse shall be used in any hackney coach under the size of fourteen hands; and every licensed coach and chair shall have a number on each side; and if one person shall be licensed to keep several hackney coaches or chairs, he shall have distinct numbers; and no person shall put the same number on his coach or chair which is appointed for another, or shall deface the number, upon forfeiture of 5l.

The Commissioners may make bye-laws to bind the persons who have licences, and annex penalties for the better putting in execution this act, and for the good government of the persons licensed.

The Commissioners shall on application for licensing give the preference to the widows of hackney chairmen who die possessed of any licences, unless they neglect to apply within the space of twenty days.

No person shall ply or drive for hire with any coach, hearse, or coach-horses, to attend on any funeral in London, Westminster, or in the Bills of Mortality, except persons licensed by the Commissioners, on pain to forfeit 5l. as by the said Act of 9th Anne.

If any person shall drive a mourning coach or hearse to any funeral, except the same have a number fixed on the fore-standard, or in some other place to be appointed by the Commissioners, or except the same be the coach of some gentleman attending the master or any of the family, the Commissioners upon information may summon the driver, against whom not appearing, they are impowered to proceed, and though no express hiring shall be proved, yet unless the party appear and prove a previous order from the owner of such coach, &c. to attend at such funeral, it shall be adjudged as driving for hire, and the party shall forfeit 5l. to be recovered of the driver or undertaker of such funeral.

The Alderman of every Ward of the City, and every Justice of Peace in the said Cities and Counties, may inflict and levy the like penalties for any offences contrary to this Act, as the Commissioners missioners may. Provided that no person be punished twice for the same offence.

Every licensed coachman, plying for hire, shall be obliged and compellable, on every day of the week, at seasonable times, to go any where within the distance of ten miles from the City of London or Westminster, and every coachman plying for hire, without a cheque string or wire, placed in a proper part of his coach, shall forfeit 5s.

No Coachman shall take above the following rates, viz.

For one day of twelve hours	—	0	14 6
For every hours waiting	—	0	1 6
For the first mile and half	—	0	1 0
For two miles	—	0	1 6

And so on increasing SIXPENCE for every additional half mile to the extent of ten miles.

The coachman has his option to be paid either by the hour or distance.

No Chairman shall take above the following rates, viz.

For the first hour (if paid by the hour)	—	0	1 6
For every half hour afterwards	—	0	0 6
For any distance not exceeding one mile		0	1 0
From one mile to one mile and an half		0	1 6
For every half mile afterwards	—	0	0 6

The fares of chairmen are easily ascertained by referring to the coach fares, at, or near the same place.

If any coachman or chairman shall refuse to go at, or exact more for his hire, than according to the above rates, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding 3l. nor under 10s. and on misbehaviour, by abusive language or otherwise, the Commissioners may revoke his licence, or inflict a penalty not exceeding 3l. to the poor; and on non-payment, he shall be committed to Bridewell, or some other house of correction, and be kept to hard labour for thirty days.

If any person shall refuse to pay, or shall deface any coach or chair, any Justice may grant his warrant to bring him before him; and on proof upon oath, may award satisfaction to the party, and on refusal to pay, may bind him over to the next sessions, who may determine the same.

Rents and penalties to be levied by distress; and in default of distress, to be imprisoned till paid: and if any rent shall be unpaid for fourteen days, the Commissioners may withdraw the licence.

The breach of the bye-laws, and of these rules and orders, may be punished by any Justice of the Peace, Mayor, Bailiff, or other Magistrate, where the offence shall be committed, in like manner as by the Commissioners.

Every licensed person, who shall neglect or refuse (being duly summoned for that purpose) to appear by himself or his renter, shall forfeit 10s. and if he shall neglect or refuse to appear, together with his renter, upon the third summons, the Commissioners may revoke the licence, and licence another person in the room of such owner, 24th Geo. III. ch. 27. sect. 3.

Observations

Obſervations neceſſary to be attended to by every Perſon who employs a Hackney Coach.

THE diſtance is always reckoned from whence the coach is hired; ſo that if a coach is ordered from Charing-croſs to take up a fare at Exeter 'Change, the meaſurement begins at Charing-croſs, and ſo in the like caſe, wherever the coach is taken. The fares are all calculated from the head of the ſtand, ſo that the firſt or ſecond coach ſhould always be preferred, as the middle or further end will ſometimes occaſion a difference. Whenever a coach, chair, or boat, is hired, it ſhould be always taken poſſeſſion of before you mention where you are going, and then, if they refuſe to proceed, they are liable to be puniſhed. If more than the fare is demanded, you may offer whatever is aſked, but order him not to take more than his due, at his peril; and if he ſhould, you muſt take his number, and you will have redreſs, by applying to the Hackney Coach and Chair Office, in Somerſet-place, in the Strand, or at Waterman's-hall, near the Old Swan-ſtairs; but as there are a number of watermen in that neighbourhood, who, with impunity, inſult perſons going to and from the Hall, the beſt method therefore is to take a waterman before a Juſtice of the Peace, either for extortion or miſbehaviour, where he will be dealt with according to law.

All and every new ſquares, buildings, and ſtreets, within the ſeveral pariſhes of St. Mary-le-bone; St. George, Hanover-ſquare; St. George the Martyr, Queen-ſquare; and St. George, Bloomſbury, within the county of Middleſex; and alſo, all the ſeveral burying-grounds within five miles of the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, are deemed deemed to be within the limits of the ſaid Cities, ſince the 24th of June, 1771.

Beſides the following (which are the common ſtands) a coach may ſtand and ply in any ſtreet that is thirty feet in width from curve to curve, (except St. James's-ſtreet and Pall-mall) the following regulations being obſerved, viz.

That in Cornhill, not more than eight hackney coaches ſhall ſtand, viz. Seven between the end of Gracechurch-ſtreet and Finch-lane, and one between the end of Freeman's-court and Finch-lane.

In Leadenhall-ſtreet, three coaches, between the weſt end of the India-houſe, and the paſſage leading to the Green-market, Leadenhall.

In Cheapſide, between the end of Bucklerſbury, and the end of Ironmonger-lane, three coaches.

In King-ſtreet, Guildhall, five coaches, viz. Three beginning at the end of Trump-ſtreet, towards Cateaton-ſtreet, and two on the other ſide of Trump-ſtreet, towards Cheapſide.

In Fleet-ſtreet, between Temple-bar and Chancery-lane, two coaches; and not more than one between the ſaid lane and the weſt end of St. Dunſtan's church.

All hackney coachmen are to take ſpecial care not to place their coaches on the ſaid ſtands, nearer to each other than twelve yards, nor within twelve yards of any croſs-ſtreet. Any coachman preſuming to place his coach otherwiſe than is hereby directed, or exceeding the number in thoſe places which are limited, will be fined (as the Act directs) for every offence, 40s.
